

Boris BOUCHEVREAU

Born in Le Mans (France), Boris Bouchevreau began in this city his music studies (piano, organ, compositional styles and aesthetics, analysis, choral singing).

He carries on studying music in the suburbs of Paris, and, in particular, obtains a Music Study Diploma for organ (DEM in french), at the Regional Conservatoire of Saint Maur-des-Fossés (France), in Eric Lebrun's class - with whom he is currently perfecting - and three awards from the Paris Conservatoire (Conservatoire National Supérieur de Musique de Paris in french): analysis, harmony, counterpoint.

Fascinated by choral singing, he conducts the women's choir Scherzando from its setting-up (<http://asso-scherzando.idoo.com/>).
